From the The. Adkins Church, their will arrangements and details telling others of the home town in which place the meet to live; Analyze the acts of Congress and the various bills relate.

That the topic might be a headache, and the argument will thrive.

It's in the leather shop that there hangs.

The current facts and Congress now; About season's novelties and the styles of the year.

The praise of saints, devils, time for the joke of courtesy and to be kind.

In comes a stranger then the argument begins, and after you pause to catch this stranger's mind.

So runs the nature and the custom in the leather shop.

W. M. J. STEWART SONG RECITAL

St. Peter's Church was filled last Friday night with an audience and was unusually responsive and appreciative of the song recital of Mr. Wm. Stewart.

THEATRES

ANITA BUSH AND COMPANY AT BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE

Booker and Company are presenting a good show composed of specialty numbers and the Booker Washington Theatre this week. Miss Anita Bush, who is appearing with specialty, plus, is supported by George Alexander, an artist-entertainer. Little Jeff and Fred Hause do their unique work. The former is a constantly planned Bostonian in the Plaza and the comedian is heard in a couple of instrumental numbers. Among the specialty acts are the clowns by Max Head and his two sons, Comedy doing a riotous romp back for Little Jeff and Hause. Stories by Alexander and girls "Hats Off" to Max Head and girls "Hot Salsa" to Hause. The Company will close engagement long Friday night.

VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK

An excellent Vaudeville show has been booked for the Booker Washington Theatre for the week of Dec. 11-19. It will be Tucker and Greshen, Miss Billie Harris, Buster and Willie Porter, Edna and Dorris. They will dress their "Pig" envelopes round on Monday.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

GO TO MOVIES WEEK
Book and Magazine Month will be "Go To Movies" week at the picture theatres. This has been chosen by the exhibitors as a time to advise the public to visit the local theatres. An unusual attraction this week will be offered a week of first-class features at all the theatres.

THE COMET

"The Comet" will be featured at the Comet Theatre this Friday and Saturday. It is a drama of the story of a crook who is snatched from life of crime by receiving an offer of immunity through the marvels of plastic surgery.

William Farnum in "Moonshine Valley" will be the Sunday feature. The story is that of a man whose wife elopes with a doctor. A child born there. Later on she becomes lost and is found by a man who later kills the man she eloped with. Other horrors during the week are "The Rover" on Monday, "Jackie" on Tuesday, "The Silver Wings" on Thursday, "The Silver Wings" in the emotional drama concerning mother love, Interplay in "Wise Care."

THE STAR

Henry B. Walthall and Mary Alden will be seen in "Parted Curtains" on the first Friday and Saturday. "The Silver Wings" will be featured with "The Silver Wings" will be "The Story of the two friends who find themselves in love with the same girl. Compensation for the original cast which has depicted them of heart and the action of parents. "The Threepenny Opera" will be the star of the show on the second Friday and Saturday. A group of clever people find themselves imprisoned in a bank vault after the Bank Exchange. Here they become aware of the fact that some of them are being trapped in the floodlight and air-lighted basement and in the time of what they believe to be certain death they have to find their own life and interests to the last second. How are they saved and the effect of their rescue upon their resulting nature of the strongest and most brutal illnesses ever shown in a motion picture.

THE JESTER

Josephine Earle will be presented in "John Smith" at the Imperial Theatre this Saturday. This picture answers many questions about previous and present political life. But it is really reform, not reform, that is to be got out and seen after the last scene has been completed. If he is here now, why will a prison sentence fit him then?

On Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, Harry Carey will be seen in "Green Hat" a five part comedy that will be presented on the first three days. Next Thursday and Friday, "A Woman of No Importance," a Widde's famous play will be presented at the Star. It is one of the best of modern comedies, with scenes in which Widde's is famous. It receives a lot of truths about people in the various stages of life which will not be very pleasant to see, but it is a way which fits one's heart. The situations have required little of the invention and ought have been inscribed in any community's whores and women's heart and life.

THE OLYMPIA

William DeMille's production, "Never People," will be shown at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday. It is a strong story of modern social life and the participants in it are, of course, Wanda, Richard, and Conrad Nagel. "Fool There Was" will be presented on Sunday and Monday. It's a picturization of Kipling's "The Yomping Man." Eddie Tolan's interpretation of the world-famous woman in question is said to be easily one of the best that she has given, and she approaches Facially the vampire of portrait fame. Louis Mann plays the fool and the artificer is a playboy who, in his play, artificer, becomes more exemplified.

"Silver Wings" with Mary Carr will be featured on Thursday and Friday. Miss Carr is a picture of a woman who loves children. She favors the one who has a "silver wings" dissipates his mother's money and finally ends up selling the wings of forestry, runs away and leaves him a "silver friend" behind. The other two children, who have been driven from the house by the strenuous and devout of the spiritual boy, now come to the mother's arms and place her back on her pedestal again.

THE CASINO

William Russell in "Mixed Faces" will be the Casino Theatre feature this Saturday. The star plays a dual role in this gripping and underhanded analysis of small town politics, presented in an exciting and thrilling manner.

On Sunday, Tom Mix will be seen.

"Do or Die" depicts with the utmost intensity the life of this field hand who drove home the screen and paid a tolling toll in his understanding which is refreshing and delightful to the mind.

"Burning Sands" will be presented next Wednesday and Thursday.

Next Friday, Earle Williams and Randolph Valentine will be seen in "Do or Die." It is a comedy of the man's will, and of my Paris with social events. Its characters, its Bohemian life and its famous police system are revealed in stirring and dramatic scenes.

THE PENDLETON

"The Fox" will be featured in the Pendleton Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The star stars at the sensational Dixieland Steeplechase and follows with lightning-like action until the last three scenes, from the scenes. William Russell explores desperate races by horse, steamboat, train and automobile. His and death struggles in the water and in a burning building, the fight from the flames to the fire, the human life not and the escape as the walls crumble to earth.

On Thursday and Friday, "The Pendleton" will be seen. "The Devil Is In The Soul" is the simple tale of how one man's faith cured another man's crookedness.

THE CRITERION

"Where My Wandering Boy Tonight" will be the Criterion Theatre special this Saturday. The story was suggested by the hymn of the same name, and the tale of it is told in the picture. It follows the lure of the big city is unfolded in such a way that it is bound to grip the attention of all.

Thomas H. Ince's thrilling drama of dual personality, "Skin Deep" will be presented on Sunday in the story, a notorious crook was redeemed by an operator whom changes the face familiar to the police and the underworld. It is a new and one of the most gripping and a new one and a decent chance in life.

William Fox's screen version of Rudyard Kipling's famous "The Vampire" will be served Thursday night, the title "Vamp There Was." Estelle Taylor is the vamp and Lester Stone is the man who left wife, child and friends for a "tramp a bone" and a "kick of hate."

THE LINCOLN

"The Valley of Silent Men" with Alice Rubens will be the Lincoln's feature on Saturday. The star deals with a Canadian girl who devotes her life to exonerate the man who, to save his brother's life, assumes responsibility for a murder of which he is innocent. The development of this story, there are many gripping moments, while the finish is novel and dramatic.

On Sunday the feature will be the Paramount's "Burning Sands." Wesley Barry will be presented in "School Days" next Thursday. In this picture applies all the tricks of the average boy in the school room, including the love of a teacher.

The story, the joys and the disappointments of boyhood are still with Wesley, but he longs to be a grown up and wear long pants, everything.

THE KELPA

"According To Her" will be the Reliance Theatre feature on Sunday. The story finds its home in the situation of an ostracized, unloved woman who failed to remodel his life, according to Her. It has a strong dramatic development, but because of the unique theme has been invested with comedy and pathos. While it is filled with laughs, it has a story with much an unusual twist that it will not soon be forgotten, it is claimed. David Butler is the star.

Freight News article
MOUNTAINVILLE, W. Va., Nov. 27.—A pardon was issued here Friday to Floyd Gardner who has served six years in the penitentiary here. He was allowed to have legal representation when informed that he was free. "I don't want to be pardoned till after Thanksgiving, as I want to play my usual part in the prison inspection show on that day."

Creole spoken in the home to today Creole College, Mrs. Evelyn Scott, President.

My experience has taught me that there is a difference in color. Some are not growing. Sometimes your scalp is diseased, you may have ringworm. I will tell you, just what you need. You may have a cold, a fever, a headache, or tetter. Come and consult me now, bad temples and thin hair.

I will teach these branches; hair and scalp treatment; facial and body massage; dieting, and crippled Diplomas given. A heart to heart talk with every woman and girl. I will tell you why you need to use different oils and salves.

I make oil and salve, soap and hair goods. Agents wanted, send stamp for a reply.
